

Evaluation Criteria for 2nd Round for Category A Agencies (Maximum Marks 20)

Evaluation Criteria of Technical Presentation for Category A	Maximum Marks	Remarks
Employability Potential Assessment based on percentage job offers made by a company w.r.t. total no. of employees working in the same company	5	Please refer to the annexure A4 – Employability potential assessment of the EOI documents. Agencies are expected to put that data on PPT and explain to the committee.
Special Achievements and Success stories if any	5	Any special achievement or success stories of the past skilling activities.
Past targeted training approach (For eg. Trainings conducted for SC/STs, Women groups, Persons with special abilities, Drug Addicts, Trans genders, Trainings in traditional art and craft of Punjab or any other special needy group)	10	Any specific target segment to which skill training was Provided by the Agency.
Total	20

Evaluation Criteria for 2nd Round for Category B Agencies (Maximum Marks 20)

Evaluation Criteria of Technical Presentation for Category B	Maximum Marks	Remarks
Employability Potential Assessment based on percentage job offers made by a company w.r.t. total no. of employees working in the same company	5	Please refer to the annexure B3 – Employability potential assessment of the EOI documents. Agencies are expected to put that data on PPT and explain to the committee.
Innovation in proposed training methodology	5	Any new method /Innovation of providing training to the candidates reflecting new trends of the industry.
Future Targeted training approach (For eg. Trainings Proposed for SC/STs, Women groups, Persons with special abilities, Drug Addicts, Trans genders, Trainings in traditional art and craft of Punjab or any other special needy group)	10	Any specific target segment to which skill training is to be provided in future by the Agency.
Total	20	